il novecento fa discutere la sua eredità è controversa la sua memoria divisa dal regicidio alla grande guerra dal delitto matteiotti all'8 settembre dal miracolo economico alla contestazione dagli anni del terrorismo al maxiprocesso e a tangentopoli il corso della storia ha accelerato il passo impresso svolte segnato l'identità del nostro paese nove grandi storici interpretano un'epoca che ci riguarda tutti da vicino dalle prime voci poetiche del novecento di govoni palazzeschi e gozzano fino alle esperienze degli anni settanta passando per i grandi maestri ungaretti montale saba quasimodo pavese questa antologia propone un'ampia selezione dei testi di cinquantuno poeti italiani tra i più noti e apprezzati personalità assai eterogenee che disegnano tra versi giocosi riflessioni dolenti sperimentalismi estremi e ritorni alla tradizione del dialetto un panorama ricco e variegato in gran parte ancora da scoprire privilegiando le individualità dei singoli autori rispetto alle tendenze generali alle scuole e ai movimenti e puntando l'attenzione più sui momenti atipici che sul canone cristallizzato. Pier Vincenzo Mengaldo indaga con l'acume e la sensibilità finissimi del filologo e del critico questo universo poetico. Il risultato è un'antologia ormai classica, un imprescindibile punto di riferimento che conferma l'imperitura centralità dell'espressione lirica nella letteratura italiana.

research and analysis on the presence role and intellectual significance of anthologies of literature and literary culture during the 20th century this book opens an often nationally focused field of research to a transnational common European debate. It addresses the ongoing transformation of the civil service, examining its evolving landscape across Europe and exploring the intricate web of historical, social and political influences that are shaping its current state and setting the future direction. Written by experts from different European countries, this book offers a transnational and interdisciplinary perspective on the civil service by combining legal analysis with insights from public management, political science and sociology. It addresses the growing complexity of public administration tasks and the increasing requirements related to the qualification of civil servants amidst global challenges such as climate change, migration and technological progress. The book is structured to provide both a broad overview as well as in-depth analyses. It covers national developments, presents comparative studies and tackles intersecting issues such as employment systems, non-discrimination and human rights, digitalisation, artificial intelligence, the fight against corruption and administrative culture. It aims to identify common European standards and provide practical guidance for public service reforms. The volume will prove to be an indispensable resource for academics, practitioners and policymakers concerned with public administration and governance.
